REIMAGINING HOUSING STABILITY

THREE HOMES. THREE PATHWAYS. ONE OUTCOME: STABILITY.

CRISIS ACCOMMODATION

Safe, immediate accommodation for individuals and families experiencing homelessness, housing crisis or family and domestic violence.

Stability

YOUTH SHARED ACCOMMODATION

A supported co-living home where young people can maintain education or employment, build independence, and develop tenancy and life skills.

Independence

INTERGENERATIONAL SHARED LIVING

A co-living model bringing together people at different life stages, reducing isolation, increasing affordability, and creating connection, belonging and mutual support.

Connection

LONG TERM HOUSING

"HOUSING STABILITY ISN'T CREATED BY WALLS. IT'S CREATED THROUGH CONNECTION."

WHAT IF EVERY REGIONAL COMMUNITY DID THIS?

THREE PATHWAYS. ONE COMMUNITY RESPONSE.

Current Expansion:

- Additional $160,000 investment secured
- Dedicated case management funding
- Additional housing pathways
- Community-funded crisis accommodation caravans
- Growing national interest in replication

HOUSING STABILITY IS BUILT BY COMMUNITIES.
